

Janet Hoang

Janet Hoang is a Sustainability Specialist for Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR). Since joining CPR in 2015 she has worked in various departments including Finance and Risk Management and is currently working on CP's Corporate Sustainability team. She is passionate about sustainability.

Janet previously held the position as the LRW Events Chair. She helped lead the 2019 LRW Conference at Railway Interchange which was one of the most successful events for LRW.

Janet was raised in Edmonton, Alberta where she studied Business. She has completed and continues to maintain her Chartered Professional Accountant designation. In her free time, Janet enjoys doing Crossfit and spending time with her daughter and twin boys.