

Denise Mora

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI)
Specialist
The Greenbrier Companies

Denise Mora is the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Specialist at The Greenbrier Companies. She started with Greenbrier in 2021 as part of its Commercials Sales Team and became the DEI Specialist in 2022. As DEI Specialist, Denise grew Greenbrier's Employee Resource Group (ERG) network to include eight ERGs, hosted the company's first DEI Summit, and developed U.S.-wide training materials for education and awareness. She is currently Chair of LRW's Professional Development Committee, which manages its mentorship program and jobs board and promotes various professional development opportunities across LRW.

She earned her bachelor's degree in political science and women and gender studies from Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, California. Originally from Silicon Valley, Denise's experience in diverse communities has fueled her passion for breaking barriers and creating inclusive environments for underrepresented individuals. Denise currently resides in Portland, Oregon, with her fiancé.
