

Emily Rosenquist

Director Operations, Signaling and Systems, Wabtec

Emily (Wijas) Rosenquist has recently been appointed as the Chair of the Communications Committee for the league of Railway Women. She joins us as the current Director of Operations for Wabtec Corporation's Signaling & Systems division. In her current role at Wabtec, she reports to the Group Vice President and helps execute organizational strategies, resource planning strategies, and research & development (R&D) investment plans to drive profitable growth and organizational harmonization.

Emily possesses a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering and business from The University of Connecticut. She has held various roles in Supply Chain, Product Management, Marketing and Pricing over the past 13 plus years after completing the Operations Management Leadership Program at GE. Emily lives in the Chicagoland area with her husband Anders and three children Graham, Morgan, and Lily. Outside of work, Emily enjoys spending time with her family and running.