

Geraldine Lopez

Coordinator

Communication and Government Relations
Mexican Railway Association (AMF)

Geraldine López has been the Coordinator of Communication and Government Relations at the Mexican Railway Association (AMF) since March 2019. She is an active member of the League of Railway Women. In her role at AMF, she leads communication strategies, government relations, social media management, and the promotion of level crossing safety campaigns such as “Rail Safety Week.” She also plays a key role in organizing industry events, expos, and seminars.

With more than 10 years of experience in the railway sector, Geraldine has held several leadership positions at the Ministry of Infrastructure, Communications, and Transportation (SICT), including Head of the Department of Railway Trusts, Deputy Director of Railway Projects, and Director of Management Control. She also served as Head of Communication at the Railway Transport Regulatory Agency (ARTF).

She holds a bachelor’s degree in Communication, is a Master’s degree candidate in Public Administration, and has a Diploma in Transportation and Logistics.

As Co-Ambassador of LRW Mexico, Geraldine is committed to promoting women’s leadership in the railway industry, strengthening professional networks, and fostering a more inclusive and connected rail sector.
