

Morgan Hendon

Sr. Public Affairs and PAC Manager, Trinity Industries

Morgan has accumulated various experiences over 13 years ranging from Government Relations to Fundraising. She has been with Trinity Industries for three years and is quickly learning the Rail space, where she is responsible for the company's Political Action Committee and one of Trinity's main lobbyists. Morgan is working towards a Railway Management Certificate Program out of Michigan State University to better understand the industry. She will finish the program in November 2024.

Before moving to Dallas, TX, she lived in Washington, DC, for five years, where she worked for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and worked in fundraising, building up their membership. Morgan has also worked in different capacities in Texas within state politics, such as the American Heart Association and the Texas State Legislature.

Morgan is a graduate of the University of Texas in Austin and majored in Government and Latin American Studies with minors in Spanish and Business. In her free time, you will find her at the gym, hiking, traveling, or walking her Frenchie puppy, Duchess, around Dallas.
