

Sarah Yurasko

Sr. Vice President Law & General Counsel
American Short Line and Regional Railroad
Association (ASLRRRA)

Sarah Yurasko is Sr. Vice President Law & General Counsel with the American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association (ASLRRRA). In this position, she advises on all legal matters for ASLRRRA and represents the short line industry nationally on policy matters. Prior to ASLRRRA, she worked at the Association of American Railroads as Assistant General Counsel, focusing on safety law issues.

She previously worked at Amtrak on high-speed rail planning and policy development. She started her career as a trial attorney in the Office of Chief Counsel at the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA). While at the FRA, Ms. Yurasko completed the Executive Potential Program through the Graduate School USA, a leadership development program that provides training and developmental experiences for high potential employees.

She earned a JD from American University's Washington College of Law and an MA in International Affairs from American University's School of International Service. She also has a BA in French and a BFA in Theatre Arts from Southern Methodist University.

She currently resides in Spotsylvania, Virginia, with her husband and five children.
